

The Kilmore & District Hospital

ANAESTHETIC REGISTERED NURSE – THEATRE

The Kilmore & District Hospital (TKDH) provides a variety of health and aged care services. The inpatient and outpatient services that are offered to the community of Kilmore and District include maternity, medical, surgical, and subacute care. The hospital has 30 Acute beds, 2 Operating suites, a four-bay Urgent Care Centre and a District Nursing Service. Aged Care includes a 30 Bed High Care facility and a 30 Bed Low Care Facility.

We are currently seeking a Registered Nurse with previous experience in a Theatre setting to come and join our busy Perioperative team. You will be highly motivated person with strong clinical, interpersonal and critical thinking skills with a committed to providing the best patient outcomes.

To be successful within this role you will need to possess:

- Current nursing registration with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency
- Clinical skills and experience in acute nursing, theatre and recovery is highly desirable
- Anaesthetic trained and qualified with hands on experience
- Comprehensive knowledge of Operating Theatre Standards
- Knowledge of contemporary theatre models of care, behaviour management, role modelling and how to promote a positive work environment.
- Highly effective communication and interpersonal skills
- Demonstrated ability to lead and motivate others
- Demonstrated problem solving and negotiation skills
- Sound Computer skills

To find out more about this role please refer to the attached Position Description or contact:
David Clark, Nurse Unit Manager, clarkd@humehealth.org.au or (03) 5734 2168

To apply please email your cover letter, resume addressing the key selection criteria to kilmorerecruitment@humehealth.org.au.

Applications close: Sunday 9th September 2018

*All employment with The Kilmore and District Hospital is subject to and conditional upon a satisfactory clearance of Working with Children Check and Police Check.